Caples Will Force Matters in Bout With the Irishman

Johnny McCarthy did a good afternoon's work yesterday at Camp Very. He boxed six rounds with George Ingle before quite a number of spectators and the clever manner in which he handled himself made a good impression on those present.

Previous to boxing, he put in some time skipping the rope, punching the bag and throwing the medicine ball. The newcomer is delighted with the climate and says that he never felt better in his life.

McCarthy is not making any boastful predictions of the outcome of his coming contest with Young Caples. He is fully aware that the Easterner is a dangerous opponent and will not take him on lightly.

This morning McCarthy was up bright and early. He did a six-mile run and will top off with six rounds with Ingle at Camp Very this afternoon.

Caples in Shape.

Young Caples did not box in public last night. What work he did was done in private. He will spar at the Orpheum tonight and will start to taper off tomorrow. Caples is as fit as he ever will be, and would be ready to step into the ring tonight had he to do so.

Caples makes no pretense to be a fine boxer. He says that he is a fighter and that in his ring career he has beaten all the clever ones who were sent against him. Little can be gained from his work at training quarters other than that he can assimilate punishment and deal it out when so minded in astonishing quantities. His sparring partners aver that he fights them a different way every night.

"No one has seen me fight in Honolulu," says Caples, "and no one knows how I am going to box McCarthy. I don't know for sure myself. No fighter can tell just what his style of battle will be before he enters the ring. A man may be able to adopt two or three styles of boxing in the same battle. I have never seen McCarthy work, and know nothing at all about him except what I have been told. One thing I can promise, and that is that I shall be aggressive and fight all the time. I intend to force the pace from gong to gong and McCarthy will have to go some to keep me from hitting him."

Referee Undecided.

The question of whom shall adjudicate the bout has not yet been settled.

McCarthy is agreeable to Joe Cohen or Dick Sullivan, but it is understood that Caples objects to either of these gentlemen.

There will probably be a conference of the principals this evening, at which a definite selection will be made.

Five Yachts Already Entered for Blue Riband of Pacific

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—The 1912 San Pedro-Honolulu yacht race will start from San Pedro June 11, will probably be the best in the history of that classic of Pacific Coast yachting, if the plans of the Hawaii and South Coast Yacht clubs are carried out. Five boats have already officially entered the race and at least one and possibly two more will enter.

From the San Diego Yacht Club will come the Lurline, sailed by Captain Lew B. Harris, veteran of two races and twice winner of the event. The Lurline made the fastest time that has ever been recorded over the course by a boat of her size.

The San Francisco Yacht Club will be represented by the Seafarer, one of the fastest schooners of the bay. The Seafarer will be navigated by L. A. Norris. From the Corinthian Yacht Club will be entered the Marlin, winner of the ocean race from San Francisco to Santa Cruz last season and always a prominent figure in the regattas of the Bayside yacht clubs. Ed

Van Bergen will sail her.

The Hawaii Yacht Club will be represented by their boat, which won the race in 1910, the fleet Hawaii "Bili" Stroud, mate on the last two races, will command the boat.

The Royal Victoria Yacht Club will enter the Nattrose, sailed by E. P. Nash. The Nattrose is not well known here, but much is claimed for the speedy yawl. According to all reports she is thoroughly able to make the trip, and her captain says for her "She is a witch of the wind."

Captain Nash is now overhauling the Nattrose and will leave for San Pedro May 1.

Aside from these five boats, the South Coast Yacht Club will have a schooner entered in the race, although the boat has not yet been chartered. Warren Wood, the commodore of the club, has been making every effort to procure a suitable boat. He now has three "on the string," and will probably be able to land the one he wants from that number.

The late Dicky Davis was a clever sportsman and enthusiastic horseman. Twenty years ago he drove across at the old Kapiolani Park track and drove at every meet held under the auspices of the old jockey club until the game died out here. It's last appearance in a racing snaky was three years ago at Maui. Davis was a good sportsman and a good fellow. The friends whom he has left behind number a host.

At a recent meeting of the Hawaiian Rowing Association the following officers were elected:

The baseball diamond on the new Kamehameha field will be put into first-class condition as soon as possible. It will be rolled and the right field cleared as it is needed. A large backstop will also be erected at the rear to prevent the balls from being lost. The backstop will be sixteen feet high and fifty feet long and will be set ninety feet from the home plate so that it may stop all the foul hits.

Mr. Hopwood is out daily with the Kamehameha baseball squad and is a splendid coach who understands the fine points of the game.

It is interesting to note that in the first year of Kamehameha's target shooting at Fort Shafter, December, 1910, Corporal Spencer, who made the highest score this year, stood thirty-eighth in the list.

HEALANIS TO BOOST CLUBS

The Healan Yacht and Boat Club members are receiving the following letter:

"Sir: The Healan Yacht and Boat Club has decided to institute a vigorous campaign that will result in materially increasing its membership; in fact, it is their aim to build up a membership that will be far above that of any other athletic organization in the islands. To do this we are depending on the combined efforts of its present membership, and it is needless to say that we are sure of your hearty co-operation.

"Plans are being made and material has been ordered for the construction of a large number of new lockers, and by the time these are finished, which will be within a few weeks, we shall have ample accommodations for all the new members we can get.

"We are enclosing four privilege cards and two membership application blanks which we trust you will make use of. Fill in the privilege cards, put them in the hands of your friends and direct them down to the clubhouse, or, better still, bring them down yourself. The boys at the clubhouse will make things interesting and show our guests what we have to offer a man or boy who wishes to associate with good clean fellows and get good, clean enjoyment in rowing, swimming, wrestling, etc. All that we ask of you is to send your friends down to the club. We will do the rest. If, at the expiration of three weeks, any of your friends should care to join, we will gladly welcome them as members.

"We look to you to do your best to aid us in this movement, and if every member gets results, it is plain to see the big boost the club will receive. Very truly yours,

"MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE."

SUGAR PRODUCTION

SHOWS BIG SHORTAGE

The world's production of sugar for the year, based on estimates made by Willett & Gray, the prominent New York authority, on April 11, is 15,722,593 tons, a decrease of 1,260,396 tons under the crop of 1910-1911. Of this amount the estimated amount of cane sugar is 8,885,492 tons. The United States' share in this production, including Porto Rico and Hawaii, is estimated to be 1,108,000 tons of cane sugar, and 541,000 tons of beet sugar. The European beet sugar crop, according to this authority, amounts to 6,336,000 tons, against 8,165,126 tons last year.

LOCAL PRESSMEN MEET AT DINNER

There was a very satisfactory response to the invitation of Alexander Hume Ford, on behalf of the Public Service Association, to the pressmen of Honolulu for a dinner at the Union Grill last night, with the especial purpose of considering the formation of a press club. Mr. Ford presided and Percy Hunter of Sydney, his fellow promoter of Pacific unity and development, was the guest of honor.

After an introductory speech by Mr. Ford, laying the subject open for discussion, Mr. Hunter gave a talk on what press clubs had attained to, both in strength and usefulness, in his country. Many of the local men followed, the debate being all conversational and informal, and various ideas of the nature and scope of the proposed organization, having regard to the circumstances to be dealt with were brought forth. One suggestion was to have a press association for the Territory, but the prevailing opinion seemed to be that the social feature should not be disregarded.

On motion of Mr. Maury, seconded by Mr. Irwin, the chair was directed to appoint a committee of three, these to appoint two additional members, to consider the whole matter and report as early as possible to a called meeting. The three members named by the chairman were Daniel Logan, city editor of the Star, chairman; Riley Allen, city editor of the Bulletin, and George Henshall of The Advertiser.

It was agreed that should the committee's report happily result in organization, the body would signalize the occasion with an excursion to Haleiwa.

The following local men were present: From the Advertiser, L. G. Maury, George Henshall, A. P. Taylor, H. E. Walker, A. L. MacKaye, R. Y. Gilbert. From the Star, Daniel Logan, V. L. Stevenson, John M. Ghes, A. Wallace. From the Bulletin, Phil Denky, Laurence Redington, James H. Haukoale, F. E. Matson. From the Mid-Pacific Magazine, Alexander Hume Ford. From the Crossroads, L. P. Irwin. From the Paradise of the Pacific, Wm. Langton.

MANY MAUI FOLK HEAR MR. BUTLER

(Special Correspondence of the Star.)

WAILUKU, April 30.—Fred Butler arrived on Maui last Friday night. He sang at the Makawao Union church on Sunday morning, and at the Wailuku Union church Sunday evening. Three hundred people were present at the Makawao Union church and two hundred at the Wailuku Union church. At the evening service Colonel French, Salvation Army, gave a very interesting sermon.

The trustees of the Maunaloa Seminary met at the seminary building on Saturday last. A course of study committee was appointed. Clarence G. White was elected member to the board of trustees.

J. P. Cooke and Sam Baldwin returned today, after having visited different portions of Maui. Their last trip was to Honolulu Ranch before taking the Claudine from Lahaina.

There is a strong suspicion that the dreaded Mediterranean fly is elsewhere on Maui. Maggots were found

LOCAL TEAM TO VISIT HILO

It has been definitely decided that the Japanese Athletic Club baseball nine and the McKinley High School soccer team will go to Hilo for the Fourth of July and take part in the events of the big sporting carnival being planned by the Big Island enthusiasts.

Henry Chillingworth will accompany the teams in the capacity of manager. They will leave on Tuesday, July 2, play practice games on July and on the Glorious Fourth play for two purses of $100 each.

The High School soccer team should be able to defeat the Hilo eleven, though in the past Hilo has sprung more than one surprise in the line of soccer.

The J. A. C. may be relied on to treat the Hiloites to a good article of ball, for their team is perhaps stronger today than ever before.

The soccer and baseball players will be able to compete in the running races, which will figure on the program, and which will range from 100 yards to five miles, and for which attractive prizes are offered.

ANTON KAO ENTERS RACE

The latest in connection with the Haleiwa Marathon is that Anton Kao, the Waiataua Horse, has entered the contest. His name was down in the book at E. O. Hall's this morning and this will undoubtedly give a great stimulus to the event.

Other entries so far received are: M. Gonsalves, Eddie Brown, Nigel Jackson, T. Cabral and Vincent Gomes.

In the senior bicycle race the entries are K. Kanemura, G. Addison, Tony Thomas.

In the junior bicycle race Clarence Rawlins and David Nawai have put their names down.

Nigel Jackson reports good success in his campaign for prizes and a list of prizes and trophies to be won will be published in the near future.
